

Short Vitae and Occupation

Woytek Kujawski Ph.D. Arch.	Integrative Solutions Group, Principal, Royal Architecture Institute of Canada (MRAIC) International Initiative for a Sustainable Built Environment (iiSBE)
	Dr Woytek Kujawski is an architect with experience in the design and construction of residential and commercial buildings and sustainability issues in the building sector. He has been involved in the development of performance assessment tools and sustainable building applications for governments and national and international organizations. He has worked in the federal government in research on sustainable multi-unit residential buildings, Net Zero Energy and Low Impact Housing and EQUilibrium™ Initiative; he also served on the Board of Directors of International Initiative for a Sustainable Built Environment (iiSBE) and is LEED® accredited professional (AP). He was also an Adjunct Research Professor at Carleton University School of Architecture in Ottawa, lectured at Ryerson University in Toronto and Wroclaw and Cracow Technical Universities. He presented the results of his work and research in Canada and around the world at Sustainability related Conferences (SB) between 1998 and 2020 while also publishing about forty articles. Woytek is a lecturer at the postgraduate Green Architecture Program and Building Science bachelor studies at Algonquin College in Ottawa (Canada). He is also the principal of ISG consulting company operating in sustainable design, focusing on energy, environment, and integrative design process. He lives in Kanata (Ottawa), Ontario, Canada.